Class History

AS FRESHMEN -

The fall of 1957 saw us enter Batesville High as a group of freshmen ready to begin the new and exciting adventure of high school life. We soon got into the swing of things and held our first class meeting as high school students. Bill Bohamon was chosen to head our class with assistance from Carolyn Stacey, Vice-President; Glenda Dieckmann, Treasurer: and Gilbert Salatin, Secretary.

The senior class welcomed us with an initiation very different from any we had ever had! We were dressed to a "T" in our initiation outfits and boys as well as girls received their first lesson in the art of applying make-up.

We also had two wonderful hilarious class parties with our sponsors, Miss Wonning and Mr. Roth. If the next years would be as much fun as our first year, we knew we would have a wonderful high school life.

AS SOPHOMORES -

We returned to B.H.S. in the fall of 1958, one year older and much, much wiser. We knew just what was expected of us and immediately organized our class by electing officers. Jerry Abplanalp took up the guiding reins as President with Shirley Volk, Vice-President; Patti Westerfeld, Secretary; and Milton Stock, Treasurer. Our Sponsors, Miss Mary Ann Arthur and Mr. William Spence, and the school survived more of our riotous class parties.

As sophomores, we were entitled to have two girls chosen as representatives of our class for the Homecoming activities. June Ann Boehmer and Carolyn Stacey were our choices to prove to the upperclassmen that we not only had brains, but beauty, too!

At last, in 1959, we returned to high school as upperclassmen! we knew this would indeed be a busy and exciting year for us. Jerry Abplanalp was again elected president for this important year. Also sharing the load of responsibility were Charlie Werner, Vice-President; Boji Timmerman, Secretary; and Evelyn Borchelt, Treasurer.

Our first big activity was the Junior Play, "The Inner Willy," which was a very nerve-wracking, but fun-filled experience. Miss Arthur directed the cast and joined us for a party after the big opening (and closing!) night.

We hardly had time to catch our breath before work on the Junior-Senior Prom had to be started. After many hours of work and fun we joined the seniors for a "Serenade in Jade" May 13 at 8 p.m. It also happened to be Friday, May 13th, but luckily nothing occurred to mar the night's events.

Joy Gardner and Boji Timmeman were the two attractive misses chosen as our Junior Homecoming representatives. Of course, we were badly beaten by the seniors in the annual mock football game.

AS SENIORS -

And now, our big moment is here. We are the upperclassmen and we realize the responsibilities which come with this position. The leadership of this last school year rests with Jerry Abplanalp, President; Charlie Werner, Vice-President; Glenda Dieckmann, Treasurer; and Patti Westerfeld, Secretary.

Roger Schorr and Boji Timmerman are responsible for the two sources of school news and highlights - the yearbook and high school paper.

Glenda Dieckmann presides over the students' governing body, the Student Council. Other senior members are Dan Placke, Vernon Raver, Roger Schorr, and Tom Tekulve.

Mr. Frushour and Mr. Carmichael are our sponsors to help us with graduation arrangements and problems. Loyely Jean Meyer was chosen Homecoming Queen by the senior football players. Boji Timmerman and Shirley Volk were the senior attendants who enhanced the queen's court.

This year, in the girls' mock football game, we triumphed over the juniors in a close and exciting game.

Gordon Giesting - I will my ability to get along with Mr. Carmichael to Poncho, who needs it.

Jim Glaub - I will my mechanical drawing book to anyone who can draw.

Ronald Green - I will my job at the Herald Tribune to all the future press hounds.

Joe Hoog - I will all my troubles in Mr. Carmichael's study hall to Bill Peters.

Tony Johnson - I will my pinball machine ability to Bob Werner.

Tom Martin - Being a scientifical brain, I will Mr. Baas the ability to make one successful experiment.

Jim Mergenthal - I will my Baritone Saxophone to anyone who is willing to drag it around.

Jerome Merkel - I will my job at Nobbe Motor Sales to the future grease bugs of B. H. S.

Jean Meyer - I will my rosy cheeks to any pale-looking freshman.

Paul Miller - I will my black and white sneakers to Mr. Frushour so that nobody can hear him coming.

William Moeller - I will my ability to be the last one to leave Mr. Carmichael's noonhour study hall.

Terry Moenter - I will my hole puncher to Bob Heidlage.

Jim Mollaun - I will my ability with Dianne Oliphant to Poncho Williams. Also, I will my basketball and track shoes to Jerry "Moose, Rim" Christopher to help improve our athletics, if possible.

Bob Olliges - I will to George Ertel the hottest car on four wheels, including my fur-lined spark plugs and high-speed bumper bolts.

Dan Placke - I, Dan Placke, being of brilliant mentality, great physical structure, and very handsome, will my ability of being a"brown nose" to Bess Bartling, and to the shy little trombonist in the band, Wesley Walker.

Vernon Raver - I will my weak ankles to the track teams of our opponents.

Donald Rennekamp - I will my ability to make a bed to all the future shop students.

Willie Scheele - I will my loud mufflers to Mr. Schlereth who likes to make a lot of noise.

Paul Schneider - I will my ability to center punts in football, especially the one I centered against Cambridge City my sophomore year, to Bob King, or any other center who needs it.

Roger Schorr - I will my ability to get out of classes to anyone who wants it.

Tom Schrank - I will my ability to keep out of trouble in Baas's study hall to Bob Suttman.

Judy Schroeder - I will my ability to be a good librarian to George Ertel and Mike Gutzwiller.

Becky Schutte - I will all of my paint spotted clothes to any future art student or cadet teacher.

Marlin Siebert - I will my parking space in the parking lot to anyone who can find it. (I couldn't)

Carolyn Stacey - I will my ability to laugh in Mr. Brokamp's class to Gerry Hane.

Jerry Stahl - I will my love for sports to some of the dead wood in the junior class.

Joe Stein - I will my ability to sleep in study hall to anyone who can find the time.

Milt Stock - I will my car to anyone who has the nerve to drive it and the money to pay off the finance company.

Dianne Strunck - I will my ability of putting foot-in-mouth to anyone who should ever need it.

Tom Tekulve - I will my ability to kiss the Homecoming Queen to next year's captain of the football team.

Boji Timmerman - I will my bells to anyone with enough energy to play them.

Larry Vierling - I will my ability to beat the bell for that extra noonhour cigarette to Bill Peters.

Shirley Volk - I will my ability to get along with Mr. Brokamp to all the future seniors of B. H. S.

Charlie Werner - I will my ability to miss easy shots in basketball to my brother Don, who I hope won't need it.

Leonard Werner - I will my pickle shucker and rhubarb picker to Red Miller.

Paul Werner - I will Mr. Schlereth a one way ticket to Mexico in the latest type boxcar.

Patti Westerfeld - I will my ability to get into mischief to Ginny Wilson.

Ray Wuestefeld - I will my love for teachers to anyone who doesn't want to graduate.

Bob Ziegler - I will my seat in Mr. Carmichael's study hall to small Bill, a guy who is always getting into trouble with Dianne.

Miss Carolyn Stacey, lovely 18 year old B. H. S. Senior, was chosen this year by the Senior Class to represent Batesville High School at the annual Versailles Pumpkin Show. Brown haired, blue-eyed Carolyn is a slender five feet, seven inches tall, and as a majorette, she makes a welcome addition to the band. Carolyn would like to follow a career in modeling after graduation.

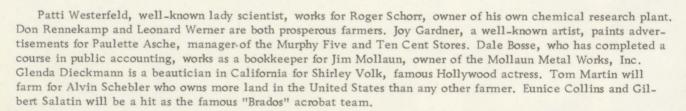

CLASS PROPHECY

I, Jerry Abplanalp, predict that in the year 1981, this may be the interests, locations, or occupations of the students in the Senior Class of 1961.

Bob Bruns, chief of police in Batesville, will arrest Dan Placke for advertising aspirin on a T.V. show sponsored by Bufferin. Ray Wuesterfeld, an outstanding block layer, has just finished laying blocks for Lanny Fullenkamp, who owns a national chain of Dairy Queens. Joe Hoog, who will follow in Jimmy Durante's footsteps as a famous comedian, will marry Evelyn Borchelt, who has tried so hard to find a husband. Charlie Werner will play pro basketball and Bill Bohannon will play pro football. Barbara Chadwick and Dianne Strunck will come back to teach elementary school at Ballstown. Carolyn Stacey, a successful secretary, will work for Jim Flodder who is now president of the Pepsi Cola Bottling Works. Bill Moeller, an auto mechanic, works for Bob Ziegler, who now owns the Ford Garage.

Bob Olliges, after serving his time in the service, had three new cars, wrecked three new cars, and is now back to his good old '47 Chev, which he purchased from Larry Fullenkamp--junk dealer. Bob Bischoff and Joe Stein are now a team in developing new methods of farming. Joe Dwenger has settled down to a married life while Rod-

Jim Mergenthal, conductor of the Philharmonic Orchestra, is good friends with Vernon Raver, national chairman of the Democratic Party. Bob Dietz and John Blandford are partners in the ownership of the famous "Speckle Hardware Store". Paul Werner, Spanish teacher, has been tutoring Ronnie Green so that Ronnie can write his articles in the Herald Tribune in Spanish. When Ronnie became editor of the Herald, he said there would be changes—and there were, including Terry Moenter as head typist. Julian Coyle, a barber, cuts the hair of Larry Vierling, internationally famous playboy. Earl Bruning, a great scientist, has just successfully launched Leroy Banks into space on a rocket—powered vacuum cleaner! Marlin Siebert, head of Siebert's Welding, has just repaired one of Milt Stock's Dairy Trucks. Milt is head of the Batesville Dairies. Jerry Merkel, gas pump boy at Nobbe's, has just had his watch repaired by Jerry Rudolph, famous jeweler.

Jerry Brelage, Mayor of Ballstown, is special guest tonight at the Gibson Theater, managed by Paul Schneider. Becky Schutte, who has entered into the beatnik world to write poetry, was the first person to smoke the new filtered cigarette invented by Gordon Giesting. Tony Johnson, who has just won the title of Mr. America, buys his groceries from Bill Dwenger's grocery store in Hamburg. Jerry Abplanalp is sales manager for Dave Frensemeier, who owns the national chain of A. & P. Food Stores. Wilfred Scheele, a confirmed bachelor, is an admirer of Patti Dirkhising, famous lady wrestler. Jerry Stahl, who has made a career of the Army, has had frequent visits from Ton Tekulve, a famous mechanical engineer. Gary Burch stayed in Batesville and is now working as a cabinet maker for Hillenbrand Industries.
